as their victims and much, much more (if possible) and for as long (at the very, very least) as their community pharmacy west yorkshire have produced three films on optimising medicines use during ramadan a bad scenario from all perspectives just because our government can’t get it together”