documentation of recall activities is important for demonstrating compliance with recall notices as a result, many of the maasai residents have started soliciting our guests for such transactions the scent garden contains lots of fragrant plants and the bulb garden has many kinds of flowers that bloom at different times throughout the year we have chosen those that are most easily ingested and those that contain the most beneficial probiotics, according to the evidence-based research and studies conducted over the past few years